

Continuing Competence Program

THE FOUR STEPS TO MEETING THE CCP REQUIREMENTS:

The CCP is an ongoing process that extends throughout the year. This includes periodic assessment of your learning plan to ensure that you are meeting your identified learning goals. Outlined below is a suggested timeline to help you with planning your annual CCP activities.

DECEMBER/JANUARY	JUNE
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Complete your CCP self-assessment and choose 1 to 2 indicators that you would like to focus on in the coming year. • Prepare your CCP learning plan for the coming year. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Revisit and update your learning plan. • Record completed learning activities (date). • Remember that your learning goals can change during the year.
JANUARY	OCTOBER
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Begin implementing your learning plan by starting those activities that will allow you to meet your learning goals. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Record completed CCP learning activities (date). • Evaluate the impact of your CCP learning plan on your practice.
MARCH	OCTOBER/NOVEMBER
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Revisit and update your learning plan. • Record completed learning activities (date). • Complete the CCP mandatory learning module. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Renew your registration for the coming year. • Begin to plan for your continuing competence by scheduling your CCP self-assessment and development of learning plan for December.

